Little Voices, Kept

“Grandma, are you older than the dinosaurs?” Write it down before it slips away.

Overheard at Our House is a keepsake hardcover for the funny, sweet and completely unexpected things children say. Big pages hold the best quotes with room for who said it, their age, what was happening and what you said back. Quick pages catch three gems at a time, so no moment waits for a page.

Four chapters follow a family day, from the kitchen table and the car ride to the garden and bedtime, with detailed black-and-white illustrations throughout. Made for more than one child, it grows into a book the whole family will read aloud for years.
