Ten Little Mysteries, One Pencil

Something has gone missing in Thimble Hill, and Hattie Bloom needs your sharp eyes.

A prize ribbon vanishes at the summer fair. A cherry pie disappears from a windowsill. A garden gnome goes for a walk. In each of ten gentle mysteries, Hattie, a retired knitter, and Pickle, her scruffy terrier, follow the clues round the village.

Every case has six word searches. Find all the words, and the leftover letters spell out a clue. Collect six clues, cross off the suspects and work out who did it. No one is ever hurt. There is always a kind reason.
