

TWELVE MYSTERIES. ONE SNOWBOUND WEEK.

The road is gone. The snowplough is a week away. And things keep going missing.

When a blizzard seals off the Frostwood Lodge, its one hundred and fifty-two guests settle in for a week of cocoa, skating and cake. Then Mrs. Brisket's secret cocoa tin vanishes. Then the snowman's top hat. Then Lady Winifred's famous sapphire necklace, straight from her bedside table.

With a developer circling to buy the lodge and knock it down, the manager needs a detective, fast. That's you.

Each case gives you the story, a guest register and a set of clues. Cross suspects off one by one until only the culprit remains. Every puzzle has exactly one answer, and every clue is fair.

- * 12 connected, cozy cases across one snowbound week
- * Grows from 40 suspects and 6 clues to 152 suspects and 14 clues
- * Floor, room, neighbour and roommate logic in the later cases
- * Hints and full step-by-step solutions for every case
- * No violence: just pranks, pinched pastries and one very salty cake. For teens and adults.
